Elizabeth Hudson Winter
Probate File Abstract

Elizabeth, known by family as Lizzie, died 17 October 1956 in Atlanta, Georgia. She lived in Manitou Springs, Colorado from 1915 until December 1954 when she then moved to Atlanta.

She wrote a will, dated 22 September 1954, designating her brother Ernest Hudson as executor. Her will directed her estate be equally divided into fourths: (1) ¼ to brother Ernest, (2) ¼ to brother Claude, (3) ¼ to sister Agnes, and (4) ¼ to sister Genevieve. She stipulated in her will that if sister Agnes passed away (which she would, 3 months after Elizabeth's will was written), that ¼ of Agnes' portion went to brother Ernest, ¼ of Agnes' portion went to brother Claude, and the remaining ½ of Agnes' portion to sister Genevieve. She bequeathed $500.00 to her sister-in-law Eddie Walker (pronounced 'Edie').

Her will provides addresses (as of September 1954) for her siblings. Ernest lived at 1435 Stewart Street, Denver; Claude lived in Brooksville, Mississippi; Genevieve listed at 847 Cascade Avenue SW, Atlanta; and Agnes lived at 847 Cascade Avenue SW, Atlanta. Witnesses to the will were Helen Goshen, Blakemore McCarty, and Irl Foard, all of Colorado Springs.

Elizabeth died 17 October 1956 and brother Ernest, now living in Manitou Springs, Colorado, was granted probate of her estate on 29 October 1956.

The probate lists Eddie Walker as a "legatee" in the probate file. Eddie was bequeathed $500 in Elizabeth's will. Eddie was a sister-in-law of Elizabeth. Eddie, pronounced 'Edie', was Eddie Irene Winter Walker, a sister to Elizabeth's husband Grover. Eddie lived at 1224 N. 30th Street, Birmingham.

Letters Testamentary were granted to Ernest on 13 November 1956.

Elizabeth's estate was valued at $47,809.91 with $30,977.29 being cash and bank accounts, $3,866.55 in bonds, $12,327.07 in notes and accounts, and $630 being a certificate of deposit.

> The $30,977.29 in cash and bank accounts was in 5 different banks: (1) $991.00 in Bank of Atlanta, (2) $6,897.80 in Atlanta Federal Savings and Loan of Atlanta, (3) $4,107.82 in First Federal Savings and Loan of Colorado, (4) $2,094.77 in Columbia Savings and Loan Association, and (5) $16,885.90 in Bank of Brooksville, Mississippi.
> The $4,866.55 in bonds were 7 Series E savings bonds with issue dates between 1942 and 1944, and 2 Series G savings bonds with issue dates of November 1945 and November 1946.

Proof of Publication of her estate was published in The Pikes Peak Journal for four consecutive weeks starting 23 November 1956 through 14 December 1956. Another Proof of Publication was made in the same paper, when final settlement was taking place, for four consecutive weeks starting 31 May 1957 through 21 June 1957.

Funeral expenses were $965.44, expenses during her final illness were $39.00, telephone calls were $8.53, estate administration fee was $150.00, executor fees were $2,200, and attorney fees were $2,200. Ernest, Claude, and Genevieve paid inheritance tax on amounts they received. Eddie did not pay any inheritance tax.

Elizabeth's funeral invoice, contained within her probate file, shows H.M. Patterson and Son of Atlanta performed her services. $697.00 was their standard service fee, with $137 for the vault, $50 for cemetery charges, $12 for limousine charge, and $14.56 for sales tax.

Her tombstone was purchased for $89.73 from Dixie Marble and Granite Company of Atlanta, Georgia. Doctor and medical bills were $25.00 from Fred Rudder, MD, and $14.00 from Edward M. West, MD, both of Atlanta. Telephone calls totaled $8.53 of which $1.30 was for a call made to New York, $0.90 for a call to Brooksville, Mississippi, $1.90 for a call to Manitou Springs, Colorado, $1.05 for a call to Birmingham, $1.30 for a call to Seaford, Delaware, and $1.30 for a call to Colonial Heights, Virginia.

Elizabeth's brother-in-law, Edmund Russell, husband of sister Genevieve, initially paid for the funeral expenses, tombstone, doctor charges, and telephone calls. He was reimbursed from estate proceeds.

Final distributions of the estate in June 1957 were $500 to Eddie Walker, $9,976.26 to Ernest and Claude, and $19,952.52 to Genevieve. However, it was during this timeframe that Eddie Walker died (on 18 June 1957). Her $500 share went to Charles C. Winter, her brother, as she only had one child who had since died, and she was also widowed by this time too.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF) ELIZABETH N. WINTER,) PETITION
Deceased.)

Comes now Ernest Hudson, Executor of the estate of Elizabeth N. Winter, deceased, and states to the Court, as follows:

That among the assets of said estate is a promissory note payable to the order of Elizabeth N. Winter, and signed by Ernest Hudson, said note dated February 7, 1955, the original amount of said note is $14,000.00, and payments are to be made $600.00, plus interest, on the first day of February and the first day of August of each year, with interest at five per cent per annum.

The unpaid balance on the principal at the present time is $11,600.00; under the terms of the note it would take approximately ten years for the note to be paid in full. Under the terms of the will the residue of the estate is to be paid one-fourth to Ernest Hudson, one-fourth to C. H. Hudson and one-half to Genevieve Russell. In order to make a division of the property at the time of closing the estate it is necessary that this note be converted into cash.

Since the interest rate is only five per cent, it is impossible to sell the note without discounting it; the payor offers to pay the note in full if it is discounted ten per cent. Your Petitioner has been unable to find anyone who is willing to buy the note without making a larger discount than this.

WHEREFORE, Your Petitioner prays for an order of this Court authorizing and directing him to accept the sum of $10,440.00, plus interest to the date of payment, in full settlement of the unpaid balance of said promissory note, said sum being the full amount of the unpaid balance less ten per cent.

O R D E R

On this day comes Ernest Hudson, Executor of the estate of Elizabeth N. Winter, deceased, and states:

That among the assets of said estate is a promissory note on which the unpaid balance amounts of $11,600.00; that said note provides for semi-annual payments of $600.00 each, plus interest at five per cent; that he is unable to sell said note without making a substantial discount; that the payor agrees to pay said note in full upon it being discounted ten per cent, or making the amount to be paid $10,440.00.

The Court now being advised in the premises, finds, that the amount of said discount is fair and reasonable.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, That Ernest Hudson, the Executor of the estate of Elizabeth N. Winter, deceased, receive from Ernest Hudson, the payor of said note, the sum of $10,440.00, plus interest to the date of payment, as full payment for the unpaid balance of said note and is authorized to deliver to the said Ernest Hudson said promissory note, marked fully paid, and to release the trust deed securing same.

All executors, administrators, guardians, conservators (and testamentary trustees whose trusts are under the jurisdiction of the County Court) upon their resignation or final settlement of the estate must submit the final accounts of their administration for settlement on this form.

The report must show (unless shown by previous reports) that all allowed claims, personal taxes assessed against or a lien upon the estate, inheritance and income taxes, and court costs, have been paid. It cannot be approved unless the notice required by statute has been given to claimants whose claims have not been allowed or disallowed by the Court. In case the estate is insolvent, the report must show that assets are to be distributed in accordance with priorities established by law.

If any heirs or legatees of an intestate or testator are unknown, or if known and there is no person qualified to receive the distributive shares or legacies of such heirs or legatees, the administrator or executor shall at the time of filing the report serve the Attorney General with a copy in person or by registered mail. (See Sec. 217; and Secs. 228 and 230, as amended; Ch. 176, 1935 Colorado Statutes Annotated.)

Attach as SCHEDULE A a list of all receipts during the period covered giving DATE, from WHOM and for WHAT received, and AMOUNT; attach as SCHEDULE B a list of all items paid out during the period covered giving DATE, to WHOM and for WHAT paid, and AMOUNT, INCLUDING FIDUCIARY AND ATTORNEY FEES.

TO SAVE RECORDING EXPENSE, PLEASE INCLUDE SCHEDULE A AND SCHEDULE B ON THE SAME PAGE, IF POSSIBLE.

Attach on Schedule C, ON SEPARATE SHEET OR SHEETS OF PAPER of the same size as the report, commencing one and one-half inches from the top, overlapping each other as much as possible but not extending below the bottom of a separate sheet, all vouchers (receipts) for every item paid out during the period covered, arranged vertically in the order the items appear in Schedule B.

EACH SEPARATE SHEET ATTACHED SHOULD BEAR ON IT THE NUMBER AND NAME OF THE ESTATE. PLEASE LEAVE MARGIN OF AT LEAST ONE AND ONE-HALF INCHES FROM THE TOP OF SHEET.

Each voucher shall be securely glued (not stapled) along its upper edge to the separate sheet, the left edges of the vouchers even with the left edge of the separate sheet, with any surplus folded in from the right; and the separate sheet or sheets shall be filed with the report, BUT SHALL NOT BE GLUED OR STAPLED TO THE REPORT.

In the SCHEDULE OF DISTRIBUTION enter in the first column the names of the distributees. In the second column, opposite the name of each distributee, enter the amount of money (if any) to be paid to him. If none, so state. In the third column, opposite the name of each distributee, describe the personalty in kind (if any) to be delivered to him. If none, so state.
